Dear Kristy

Re: 2023 Diversity in Agriculture Leadership Program

AgForce is pleased to sponsor the Diversity in Agricultural Leadership Program (DiALP) once again in 2023. It recognises Queensland industries' commitment to diversity in the workplace and the power and richness it brings. AgForce congratulates the National Farmers' Federation on continuing efforts to promote diversity and inclusion in industry.

Specifically, at AgForce our pledge includes:

1. Engaging in courageous conversations about ways to truly create inclusive cultures where everyone can thrive.
2. Strengthening our bold and innovative post-COVID workplace policies to recognise changing workplace needs and encourage ongoing diversity in our workforce.
3. Working hard to make our workplace a place of trust, where complex and sometimes difficult conversations about diversity and inclusion are held.
4. Personally, investing and committing to equity, diversity, and inclusion.

AgForce's workforce continues to diversity as we work on the many elements of a strong and inclusive workplace. This work will continue to be a priority of management, as will support as part of the National Farmers' Federation to the national DiALP program.

Yours sincerely

Michael Guerin
