'Together We Grow, Together We Prosper' artwork by David Williams of Gilimbaa, has been developed to represent The Indigenous Agricultural Product Framework. The artwork aims to be used to strengthen relationships between First Nations communities, The National Farmers' Federation and associated partners. The artwork is for all stakeholders to appreciate and engage with. The artwork is commissioned by the National Farmers' Federation, however the intellectual property of the artwork sits with Gilimbaa.

Strengthening economic opportunities for First Nations people to help to close the gaps

Caring for the lands—and waters of this vast country. The mastering of agricultural techniques over thousands of years.
The colour scheme represents the diversity of Australia's landscape with blue representing Sea Country.

